Introduction

The Palace of Versailles is an extraordinary architectural feat and is regarded as one of the most beautiful historic monuments in the world. A leading tourist attraction in France, the royal residence and the surrounding gardens attract over 10 million people every year, making it one of the most visited landmarks and a must-do while visiting France.

Illustrating more than five centuries of French history, the Palace not only houses remarkable works of art - it stands as a work of art itself. A remarkable example of 17th-century European architecture, the exquisite palace contains over 2,300 rooms, including the famous Hall of Mirrors and the glamorous King and Queen's apartments. Equally as impressive as the castle are the estate's stunning gardens. Spanning over 230 acres, the Gardens of Versailles feature 50 fountains, 620 water jets, hundreds of sculptures, approximately 200,000 trees and more than 210,000 flowers.

In this guide, we will help you discover the finer intricacies of this royal palace and how to enjoy all that it has to offer without getting overwhelmed by the wealth of its many attractions.

Exploring The Estate

Highlights of the Estate of Versailles

Château de Versailles

The Château de Versailles counts amongst the world's most prestigious monument and is designated UNESCO World Heritage site and a "Monument historique". With over 700 rooms, the palace offers a peek into the lives of the French monarchy's most influential figures. From the glittering Hall of Mirrors to the stunning portraits that sweep the ceilings of the Royal Apartments, tour the Palace and travel back in time. With over 60,000 artwork collections, Versailles showcases five centuries of French History.

All ticket options to the Palace of Versailles gives you access to the Chateau. The cheapest Versailles ticket option comes with an audio guide and costs €18. However, this involves waiting in a queue for 30 mins to 2 hours. Our recommendation would be a skip the line ticket or a guided tour with priority access to beat the queue and enter the palace from a dedicated gate with almost no wait.

Opening Hours

Tuesday - Sunday from 9:00 AM to 6:30 PM (high season) 5:30 PM (low season)

Last entry : 6:00 PM (high season) and 5:00 PM (low season)

The Park

The Park is situated beyond the Gardens and thanks to the two large water features - Grand Canal and Lake of the Swiss Guards - the Park extends the gardens seamlessly. Situated around the Grand Canal, the Versailles Park offers incredible views of the Gardens and Palace. Picnic on the lawn or ride around on a Segway tour as you take in the grandeur of the Royal Estate. The Park covers approximately 800 hectares, marked with straight paths going in and out of wooded areas and farmed lands.

Opening Hours

Daily from 7:00 AM to 8:30 PM
Last entry is at 6:00 PM

Carrosses Gallery (The Royal Stables)

Step back in time as you browse through the works showcased at the the Carrosses Gallery. Created by Louis-Philippe, the gallery houses a valuable collection of carriages, sleds, cars and harnesses.

The Carrosses Gallery is located at the right side of the courtyard, across from the Castle entrance and is a free attraction.

Opening Hours

Tuesday - Sunday from 12:30 PM to 6:30 PM
Last entry is at 6:00 PM

Marie Antoinette's Estate

To catch some time away from regal affairs and matters of the court, the kings of Versailles built themselves more intimate spaces close to the Park.

This estate was most closely associated with Queen Marie-Antoinette who commissioned landscaped gardens centred around a hamlet of cottages, hence leading to the estate being named after her.

Entrance to the Marie Antoinette's Estate is included only in the Passport Ticket. Your general admission ticket does not allow entry to these parts of the Estate.

Opening Hours

Tuesday - Sunday from 12:00 PM to 6:30 PM
Last entry is at 6:00 PM

Domaine de Trianon

Adjacent to the Park is the estate of Trianon, home to the Grand Trianon and Petit Trianon palaces, as well as the Queen’s Hamlet and a variety of ornamental gardens. Entrance to the Grand Trianon, Petit Trianon and the Queen’s Hamlet is included only in the Passport Ticket. Your general admission ticket does not allow entry to these parts of the Estate.

Grand Trianon

The Grand Trianon is a unique architectural building which King Louis XIV used as a private residence where he could spend time with Madame de Maintenon. It was originally known as the ‘Marble Trianon’ on account of the pink marble panels which adorned the palace’s elegant façades.

Petit Trianon

The Petit Trianon, considered to be a neo-classical masterpiece was completed in 1768 for King Louis XV. This new royal residence was a symbol of the king’s passion for the botanical sciences: he was keen to have a home in the heart of the gardens to which he devoted so much of his time.

Queen’s Hamlet

The Queen’s Hamlet was a result of the queen’s fascination with the charms of rural life. Inspired by the traditional rustic architecture of Normandy, it includes a windmill and dairy, as well as a dining room, salon, billiard room and boudoir. Though it was reserved for the education of her children, Marie-Antoinette also used the hamlet for promenades and hosting guests.

Gardens of Versailles

Designed by André Le Nôtre by taming and levelling the surrounding woods and marshes, the Gardens at the Palace of Versailles are a testimony of French designing and detailing for centuries. They are marked by a myriad of fountains, sculptures, walks, parterres and groves with the palace as their backdrop and a canal in the forefront, offering a spectacular sight. All these elements of this incredible place come alive with the rhythm of tunes, colourful and dramatic lighting effects in the musical shows staged regularly.

Know Your Entrance

With millions of tourists visiting the palace every year, the crowd that throngs the gates of Versailles are getting bigger every day. Different gates have been designated for people carrying individual tickets, skip the line tickets and guided tour groups - all this to reduce confusion amongst tourists and to manage thousands of tourists entering the palace more efficiently. The main entrance to the Palace of Versailles is through the Court of Honor (Cour d'Honneur). Upon entering the courtyard, there are 3 entrances to the Palace of Versailles you must be wary of.

Entrance A ( to the left )

This entrance is reserved for guests who have already purchased individual tickets online. For those who haven't, you will have to queue up at the ticket counter and then enter via Entrance A. Wait times at Entrance A are anywhere from 30 minutes to 2 hours

Entrance B ( to the right)

This entrance is for groups with a reservation for a guided tour as well as those carrying skip the line tickets. Entrance B gives you much quicker access and has hardly any wait time.

Entrance H

Reserved for guests with disabilities.

How To Save Time At The Entrance?

---

If you have not purchased your tickets online, you will have to stand in queue at the ticket counter before entering via Entrance A. While the wait times at the ticket counter can take anything between 15 to 30 minutes, the security check at Entrance A circles around 30 minutes to 2 hours.

If you have purchased skip the line tickets or tickets for a guided tour online, you can enter via Entrance B. This entrance is the quickest way to access the Palace with hardly any wait time.

Frequently Asked Questions

Q. When is the Palace least crowded?

A. The best time to visit the Palace of Versailles is after 2.30 PM as a majority step out for lunch at around this time and most organised tours step out of the Palace to explore the rest of the estate around this time. It is advisable to reach the Versailles Estate at 9:00 AM, try out the Versailles Palace Gardens, the Park, take a tour around the estate then enter the Palace of Versailles between 2.30 - 3:00 PM

Q. What is the difference between the Regular ticket and Skip the line ticket ? Can I purchase the ticket at the ticket counter?

A. As the name suggests, Skip the line ticket gives you priority access and allows you to walk past the queues. Due to the large influx of tourists, Skip the line tickets help you to save your time waiting in queues that could take anywhere between 30 -120 minutes

Q. What is the difference between a Regular ticket and a Passport ticket?

A. A passport ticket allows you additional access to Marie Antoinette’s estate as well as the amazing musical gardens show which does not come as part of the regular ticket. Areas that are common and can be accessed by any of these include - The castle ( Royal Apartments + Hall of mirrors) , The park & the carousel.
The musical show garden/fountain show only happens till end of October. Also, Passport tickets allow you to re-enter the Palace while the regular tickets do not.

Gardens can only be accessed on Wednesday & Thursday through regular tickets as there is no fountain shows on these two days.

Q. Can I visit the Palace of Versailles during the Winter months?

A. Yes you can visit the Palace of Versailles, but be warned that winters in France can get quite chilly and can drop to 3 degrees celsius, so make sure to layer up. Know that the Gardens and Fountain shows do not take place during these months. If you have a choice between visiting the Palace of Versailles in winter or summer, we'd definitely recommend visiting in summer.

Q. How much time should I set aside for Versailles visit?

A The.Versailles Estate is spread over 800 hectares and apart from the Palace of Versailles, one must take some time out to visit the Trianon Palace, Marie-Antoinette's Estate, the Coach Gallery and take a leisure walk around the Versailles Gardens and the Park. Travel from Paris to Versailles and back will consume around 2 hours of your day, so keeping the travel , meal hours and time taken to explore the Palace, we would recommend keeping aside a whole day to visit the Estate of Versailles.

Q. When can I visit the Palace of Versailles for free?

A Between the months of November to March, the first Sunday admits free entry for all to the Estate of Versailles.

However, you also qualify for free entry into Versailles if you are less than 18 years old or are a European Union resident under 26 years of age. On days of musical fountain show, access for gardens is free only for children below 6 years of age.
